PEACE WEEK

19th - 27th September 2009

Peace is Possible

Running the whole week – Words of Peace Exhibition
Star Anise Cafe, Stroud

Saturday 19th

Faith Walk. The 2009 Faith Walk will be led by the Bishop of Tewkesbury. It will show how faith is central to the life of Gloucester. Come and learn about the city's past, talk on the way with the city's present and discuss how faith will shape the city's future. Starts outside the main door of the Cathedral at 2pm, finishing at the Friendship Cafe with a cup of tea around 4pm. Distance 3 miles.

Contact: Francesca Tolond on 01452 383441

Sunday 20th

'HIROSHIMA' – Remembered; Revisited; Regretted?

Dawn Evans speaks of her recent 10 years in Hiroshima as an English teacher.

Yoko Moon from Yamaguchi tells of her visit home this summer, with local views on the arrival of 'Little Boy' 64 years ago.

Dennis Mitchell recalls the birthday greeting received on 12th August 1945, and why he couldn't accept it.
