

CORAM BOY

By Jamila Gavin
Adapted by Helen Edmundson

Jenny Wren Productions, in partnership with Gloucester Cathedral, is auditioning for a community cast for its epic production that will take place in May 2019.

Coram Boy is a gothic drama novel and an amazing piece of historical fiction based in the eighteenth century in both London and Gloucester. Stroud-based author Jamila Gavin manages to cleverly interweave three stories together to tell a story of love, friendship and betrayal.

There are some fantastic parts for adult actors as well as acting, singing and musical roles for children and young people. We would love to hear from you whether or not you have experience of performing.

Auditions will take place in Gloucester on Saturday 8th December at St Mary De Lode, St Mary's Square, Gloucester
1pm – 2.30pm for children aged between 8-18 years' old and adults from 3pm – 4.30pm

Auditions for Cheltenham will take place on Sunday 9th December at St Luke's Church Hall, Cheltenham
6pm – 7.30pm for children aged between 8-18 years' old and adults between 7.30pm-9pm

Recalls will take place on Tuesday 11th December at The Everyman Theatre, Cheltenham between 5pm – 9pm

Rehearsals will provisionally take place from January - May on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, with the occasional Sundays required.

Proposed Dress/ Tech Rehearsal:

Technical Sunday 26th May Times TBC
Dress Monday 27th May Times TBC

Proposed Performance Dates:

- Tuesday 28th May 2019
- Wednesday 29th May 2019
- Thursday 30th May 2019

NB: If there is a demand for more tickets the run will potentially be extended to include
Friday 31st May 2019

If you would like to audition for a role please email louise@twocantheatre.org.uk stating your name, age and postcode and you will be sent further information about the audition requirements.