

Religious Education Resources

ActiveRE

Building on the success of the PSALMS 'Active RE' project, which teaches RE using sports and games, one of the instructors has condensed parts of each lesson into a short, fun and interactive video and will be releasing a new one each Friday via their Facebook page and also onto the 'PSALMSUK' YouTube channel. Here's a link to one of the lessons on YouTube:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VYC5z4ufNaQ&list=PL5ezQpXrHXnUnt_j0jiyd0lzArxolsXmq&index=2&t=0s

NATRE

Many teachers have appreciated all the resources that NATRE have made available during the recent lockdown period. If you haven't yet discovered these resources follow this link for ideas for learning RE at home or in school :

https://www.natre.org.uk/about-natre/free-resources-for-you-and-your-pupils/?utm_source=emailmarketing&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=members_more_free_home_learning_resources_for_pupils_are_available_now&utm_content=2020-03-27

Barnabas in Schools are producing an expanding range of resources to support RE in the home in addition to the existing material. Website

– <https://www.barnabasinschools.org.uk/topics/re-home>

New Opportunities from Culham St Gabriel's Trust

They have launched a FREE self-study module 'Religion and Worldviews: Developing subject knowledge for teaching'. More information is available at:

<https://www.teachre.co.uk/teach-re-course/teachre-free-self-study-module/>

Picturing Islam

Lat Blaylock has created a new resource called 'Picturing Islam' for more information go to <https://youtu.be/D7WgPCdM0nk>

